PREREQUISITE(S)/COREQUISITE: none

REQUIRED TEXTS/RESOURCE MATERIALS:

Achebe, Chinua – Things Fall Apart

Kureishi, Hanif – The Buddha of Suburbia

Coetzee, J.M. – Age of Iron

Ghosh, Amitav – The Calcutta Chromosome

Other class readings will be posted to Moodle; it is your responsibility to ensure that you are able to access and read these documents well in advance of the class in which they will be discussed.

DELIVERY MODE(S): The course work includes lecture, class discussion, in-class quizzes, writing instruction and assignments.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: This course offers a survey of twentieth- and twenty-first century writings in English from around the world. Its aim is not to discuss contemporary global English literatures in their totality; rather, this course is designed to allow us to gain a sense of the richness and variety of global English literatures; at the same time, we will also come to appreciate literature's ability to make connections across geographical, cultural, and historical distances.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: After taking this course, the successfully participating students will demonstrate the following:

- Knowledge of, and the ability to use, a critical vocabulary suited to the discussion of English literature
- Knowledge of a range of literary periods and genres and an ability to classify literary works and authors according to place and time
- An understanding of the interrelation of text and context in the production and consumption of literary texts
- Skills crucial to effective college-level essay composition, from planning, to writing, to revision
- The ability to perform secondary research as well as the ability to incorporate research effectively into writing assignments

TRANSFERABILITY: UA, UC, UL, AU, GMU

*Warning: Although we strive to make the transferability information in this document up-to-date and accurate, the student has the final responsibility for ensuring the transferability of this course to Alberta Colleges and Universities. Please consult the Alberta Transfer Guide for more information. You may check to ensure the transferability of this course at Alberta Transfer Guide main page <http://www.transferalberta.ca> or, if you do not want to navigate through few links, at <http://alis.alberta.ca/ps/tsp/ta/tbi/onlinerearch.html?SearchMode=S&step=2>

** Grade of D or D+ may not be acceptable for transfer to other post-secondary institutions. Students are cautioned that it is their responsibility to contact the receiving institutions to ensure transferability

Weeks 8-9: Colonial Violence and Anti-Colonial Resistance II

Weeks 10-14: Shifting Identities: Postcolonial and Postmodern

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Written assignments are to be submitted directly to me as a hard copy. I will not accept electronic copies. It is the student's responsibility to retain a copy of ALL assignments submitted for grading; in the unlikely event of theft or loss, a duplicate copy must be available upon request.

2. Written assignments are to be submitted on time. This means that they are due before the beginning of class. Late assignments will incur a penalty of 5% per day, with weekends counting as one day. Assignments more than one week late forfeit the right to full commentary.

3. Extensions will not be granted for written assignments except in extenuating circumstances. Documentation will be required.

4. Students are expected to attend all classes. Unexcused absences will negatively affect the participation component of a student's grade and could result in a failing grade for that component of a student's final mark.

5. Participation is not a mere formality but a vital part of the college learning experience. By responding to and posing questions, students become active participants in their own educational development. That said, I am aware that not all students will feel equally comfortable speaking in front of their peers; this difference in temperament need not result in any student receiving a lower grade for participation as there are multiple ways in which students can participate beyond the classroom. These include, but are not limited to, email conversations with me regarding the readings, lectures, or discussions, or coming to office hours to continue an in-class discussion. Students are also highly encouraged to make use of Moodle as a forum for continuing the discussion beyond the classroom. Please note that participation does not mean mere physical attendance. Simply showing up for class is not the same thing as contributing to the educational experience of one's peers.

6. Students are required to check the Moodle site for this course before each class to stay informed concerning course updates and announcements.

7. Cellphones are to be turned off and kept out of sight during class time. Students who text while the instructor and/or other students are speaking will lose marks for participation.

8. The midterm is scheduled for February 16, 2017. I will not make arrangements for an alternate date for students to write the midterm except in extenuating circumstances. Documentation will be required for any student wishing to write the midterm on an alternate date.

9. The registrar will schedule a final exam for this course sometime during the semester. Students should avoid making travel plans for the end of semester until after the exam schedule is released. Exams will not be rescheduled except in extenuating circumstances. Documentation will be required for any student wishing to write the final exam on an alternate date.
