OFFICE HOURS: Mon. & Wed. 10:00 - 11:00 am, or by appointment

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION: This course examines the cultural, social and economic context in which political actors in Canada seek to protect and advance their interests and power. Attention is given to divisions or cleavages as well as unifying elements. Topics will include language, culture, political culture, economic class cleavages, gender, ethnic diversity, political socialization and social movements, interest groups and Canada's external political environment provided by the United States and the rest of the world.

PREREQUISITE(S)/COREQUISITE: None

REQUIRED TEXT/RESOURCE MATERIALS:

- Canada's Politics: Democracy, Diversity & Good Government, 3rd edition. Eric Mintz, Livianna Tossutti, and Christopher Dunn. Toronto: Pearson Education, 2017.
- Internet & database readings as listed in the syllabus appendix.
- Readings assigned by instructor in class.

DELIVERY MODE(S): Lecture and Discussion

OBJECTIVES: This course is designed to introduce you to the factors which shape the Canadian public and government & institutions. PO2210 is intended to:

- encourage you to think about the Canadian political environment, and specific elements which shape our political identities, including class, region, race, ethnicity, gender, religion, and age, including how these intersect with formal institutions and processes of Canadian government;
- introduce you to the basics of Canadian interactions with the international community;
- provide you with a basic knowledge of key ideas and concepts in political culture and socialization;
- demonstrate the value of thinking clearly and systematically about the political world and how it affects your daily life;
- prepare you for further studies in Canadian politics at the postsecondary level.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

- demonstrate an understanding of the concepts and processes of political culture and socialization, and a familiarity with elements specific to the Canadian context;
- demonstrate engagement in formal and informal Canadian politics through discussion of current events;
- assess original and secondary sources of argumentation and evidence, both scholarly and popular, and apply findings to new situations;
- demonstrate effective essay writing skills, through the evaluation of evidence and coherent synthesis of arguments;
- apply these specific skills to further academic study of politics.

TRANSFERABILITY: AU, BU, KU, MU, UA, UL,

Warning: Although we strive to make the transferability information in this document up-to-date and accurate, the student has the final responsibility for ensuring the transferability of this course to Alberta Colleges and Universities. Please consult the Alberta Transfer Guide for more information. You may check to ensure the transferability of this course at Alberta Transfer Guide at <http://transferalberta.alberta.ca/transfer-alberta-search/#/audienceTypeStep>

EVALUATIONS:

Participation	10%
Paper Proposal.....	15%
Term Paper.....	30%
Midterm Exam.....	15%
Final Exam.....	30%

Participation: You will be required to complete 5 in-class quizzes or take-home assignments at random throughout the semester. Each assignment will be worth 2% the participation grade.

Term Paper: The Paper Proposal assignment will include an annotated bibliography & outline, and will assist you in completing your final paper. You will receive a handout in class detailing the expectations for each assignment. Your final paper will be an 8 – 10 page persuasive essay on a topic within the broad category of political themes and issues. I will also supply you with a handout in class which will outline in greater detail what I expect from this paper.

Exams: Exams will consist of questions which require demonstration of knowledge of specific concepts and theories (multiple choice, matching questions, and short-response questions), as well as synthesis of that knowledge into original responses (essay-style questions). The mid-term will deal with material covered to date, while the final exam will be cumulative. Both exams will be written online in a computer lab, although the option for hand-writing is also available.

GRADING CRITERIA:

Please note that most universities will not accept your course for transfer credit IF your grade is less than C-.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

Full participation in class will require demonstration that you have completed the assigned readings, as well as an active role in group work and class discussions.

Punctual submission of assignments:

- An electronic copy is due by midnight on the due date. It should be submitted via Moodle, and should be formatted as a PDF. If you do not know how to save a document as a PDF, please contact me.
- Please title your paper as follows: LASTNAMEFirstname-Assignment-2210W2019. (Ex. Jane Smith's paper should be saved as SMITHJane-TermPaper- 2210W2019.)
- Late assignments will be docked 3% (i.e. an A becomes an A-) for each day they are late. If extenuating circumstances necessitate an extension on an assignment, you are required to speak with me AHEAD OF TIME, and appropriate paperwork (i.e. a medical note) may be required. Also, please note that you are required to write the final exam on the date scheduled by the College. You should take this into account when making any travel plans.

Classroom Conduct:

GPRC is committed to promote an environment free of harassment or discrimination where respect will be given to ethnic, cultural, religious, and lifestyle diversity, and expects individuals will conduct themselves with respect for one another. This means your behavior should exhibit respect for yourselves, each other, the instructor, and the course material. As such:

- Students are expected to arrive to class on time and prepared.
- Laptops and cellphones are permitted in class, with a few caveats.
 - Cellphones should be on silent or vibrate mode, and I expect you wait to check calls or messages until after class. If an emergency requires otherwise, I expect you to advise me at the beginning of class.
 - Laptops are to be used for class work ONLY. Students carrying out other activities will be asked to leave their laptops at home.
- Working on assignments for other courses is not permitted. Students doing so will be asked to leave the class.
- I encourage an atmosphere of positive and constructive debate. Expressing criticism or annoyance with a view expressed by another person, either through a comment, audible noise, facial expression or body language, is not acceptable, unless you are prepared to debate your position openly & respectfully in class.
- Regular attendance. If you know you are going to be absent from class, I expect you to contact me prior to class with a reason. Students who miss more than 1/3 of classes (9 or more) may be denied the opportunity to write the final exam, as stated in GPRC's Examination Policy (available at www.gprc.ab.ca/about/administration/policies/).

For information on key dates and other important matters, please refer to the GPRC Calendar, available www.gprc.ab.ca/programs/calendar/.

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING:

Cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated and there will be penalties. For a more precise definition of plagiarism and its consequences, refer to the section on Plagiarism and Cheating in the College policy titled Student Misconduct: Academic and Non-Academic at (<https://www.gprc.ab.ca/about/administration/policies/fetch.php?ID=68>).
